LAKESIDE'S SPRING MEETING.

Secretary Nathanson has issued the book program of races for the fifteen days of sport at Lakeside. It provides for five races each day with purses of the uniform value of $400, or $2000 each day. Split and extra races will no doubt be the rule owing to the number of horses that will be at the track, so that it may be safely set down that in all probability the real amount to be divided among the owners of the winning horses will be $2400 per day. The conditions show evidence of consideration and apparently provide well for all ages and classes of horses.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Ed. A. Tipton, in a personal letter from San Francisco under date of April 4, says:

"No man ever saw as many first-class yearlings as I saw at Rancho del Paso yesterday. The place itself is just a marvel in the quality of the stallions and brood mares now in use. The failures have been thrown out, and it looks as if Mr. Haggin is now bent only on breeding horses that the world cannot beat. I believe that he will succeed in the undertaking. I never saw any thing or place that so surprised me as the domain and the quality of the stock at Rancho del Paso.

"When a man puts down—or up—the money that Mr. Haggin has and keeps weeding out the worst and buying the best, I think every horse-man should give him credit. He can never get back his investment. He don't expect to do so. But he can enjoy the glory of possession of such a noble breeding establishment. I wish I could take his place and sustain the ranch. It will pay you to tab Rancho del Paso's production from date."

P. J. Dwyer's horses have wintered at Washington in J. Hynes' care and are in capital condition. Passover has improved greatly, and there is no doubt as to his being fit. The same applies to Handpress, Rifle, Thomas Cat, Ban-nock and others in the string, and I can strongly advise those speculating at this meeting to bear these horses in mind.—("Kelston," in Morning Telegraph.)

Of Tod Sloan's performances in California the Breeder and Sportsman says: "Sloan, if anything, enhanced his reputation as a jockey during his short stay in this city, riding no less than forty-two per cent of winning mounts, which is certainly a phenomenal record. He also succeeded in beating all American records by riding eighteen winners in one week. His record with the Corrigan stable is perhaps without a parallel in this or any other country. He rode forty-five races, in which he piloted no less than twenty-three winners. He was second thirteen and third three times, and was therefore unplaced but six times, and only once on a horse three years or older. Tod Sloan made a fair sum of money here, as he had up $50 on himself every time he rode. Sloan will return to California in November and will ride here until February, 1899, when he leaves for England, where he will ride throughout the season.

TRAINERS AND JOCKEYS.

At their last meeting the stewards of the Jockey Club granted licenses to the following trainers and jockeys:

ORNAMENT NOT SOLD.

MEMPHIS, TENN., April 15.—Ornament has not been sold as yet. W. H. Norton of Wenonah Stud has an option on him. The horse will fill all his engagements, and is a sure starter, barring accident, in the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Richard Croker is authority for the statement that his horse Dobbins, which is being trained in England, is showing the high rate of speed which enabled him to win the Brooklyn Derby in 1894, and that he will start in the English City and Suburban on Wednesday of next week. Dobbins has been in the stud for two years, and Mr. Croker has about forty colts and fillies by him.

E. A. A., Chicago, Ill.—The record for 1 mile and 70 yards—Goodwin's Guide is incorrect—is held by Lillian Lee (3), 95 pounds, Harlem, Ill., July 31, 1894, 1:43. Goodwin's Guide so prints the race and time. It can hardly question its own record.

After Wilson won at Memphis last Monday "Umbrella Bill" McGuigan signified his disapproval by bidding the colt up to $1,000, being $400 over his selling price.

Davis, Toledo, O.—If your ticket of April 11 read Semicolon, the bookmaker must refund bet. The starter was Simi. In our entries there was an error.

After Deyo won at Newport Monday her owner, Owen Bradley, presented her to starter "Curley" Brown.

San Francisco papers say Tom Ryan has signed jockey H. ("Skeets") Martin for the present year.

Pandora, the dam of Box, died last week while foaling a filly by Onondaga, the filly surviving.

Scratched—Celoso, 106; Rebekah, 108; Lucky D, 110; Los Troncos, 111.

Winner—Br. c, by Sid—Dottie Dimple.

Start fair. Won in a drive. Ojai was best and is in sharp form. He was lucky. Canace can be tabbed. She is good and closed resolutely. Had less than good luck. Sweet Cakes, used too much, weakened at the end. Owyhee will do best at a distance. He was cut off at start and on stretch turn and closed strong. Watch him. Bonibel was unlucky. Was cut off sharply at start and eased at end. Vertner ran below the mark.

Winner—Ch. f, by St. Carlo—Libbertlibbet.

Start fair. The first four were ridden out. Valenciennne was best and well ridden. She is at her best just now. Friend ran her race, but was not well managed. Was keenly cut off on stretch turn and closed strong. So did Official, who was well ridden. He is ready and favors a route. Chihuahua is a sprinter and none too game. He went all to pieces at the end. Cipriano was out-classed. Tempse and Quirte might as well have been left.

Scratched—Mocorito, 103; On Gua Nita, 103; Towanda, 103; Claudius, 105; Rebel Jack, 103; Al Koran, 108.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by Sir Modred—Gypsy.

Start good. The first six were driving. Pry was best and nicely handled. He favors a route. Robair ran an excellent race with far from good handling. He was cut off on the bend for home. Can go a route and should be tabbed. Metairie ran above the mark, made up ground steadily from a slow beginning and finished strong. He seemed outclassed. Can win at a distance among his own kind. Twink is only a sprinter. Dolore is also a mere dasher. Was killed off by pacing. She is good though. Tab her. Rapido, outclassed, is ready for action in less good company. Peter II is uncertain. Fort Augustus seems to be of no account.

Start good. The first four were hard driven. Rubicon was second best. He had plenty of speed and was off flying, lucky and well ridden. Mc Light was best. Away slowly he was cut off as he moved up to his horses and not well managed after the mishap. Odds On ran a greatly improved race. Tab him for early action. Bellicoso will be keyed up by the race. Was outrun all the way. Watch him. Bernardillo was virtually left. He was short and favors a route. Ricardo was outclassed.

Start good. Won in a gallop. Thelma ran far above the mark. She was best to-day and played with the field at end. Was lucky and is cherry ripe. Refugee could hardly have beaten her at his best. He ran a little less than his race. Mistral was a good horse at end. Tab him. Merry Boy is a fair horse and ran a good race. He was not well ridden. Throw out Lost Girl's race. Bad riding and interference, as the field spread out at head of stretch, cooked her goose. Meadow Lark needs stronger handling than he got. Yule and Donation are not of much present account. Moringa stopped to nothing. Last three away poorly.

Scratched—Don Gara, 99.
